

PABCON CHAMPIONSHIPS 2009

Robin Orlikowski Masters Silver Medalist

Team Canada member Robin Orlikowski, a Canadian citizen living in Grand Rapids, Michigan, earned the silver medal in the prestigious masters event at the Pan American Bowling Confederation (PABCON) championships. The Masters is the final event of the championships. Orlikowski was the only Canadian in the Masters event.

The masters is a match-play event for the top 16 men and women all events finishers. The #1 all events played #16, #2 played #15 and so on. The first player to win two games is the winner of the match.

128 men and 92 women from 22 countries in north, central, south America and the Caribbean islands have been competing. The competition took place at the 40 lane Carolina center in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

On the way to the silver medal, Orlikowski beat Shannon Pluhowski, USA in three games; Rocío Restrepo, Colombia in two games, Clara Guerrero, Colombia in three games. She lost in the final to PBA member Kim Terrell-Kearney, USA. Terrell-Kearney won the gold medal and the loser's of the semi-final matches Guerrero and Karen Marcano, Venezuela, were presented with bronze medals.
